

Nomination Acceptance Form

Election 2010, for appointment 2011/12

Association for Facilities Engineering

Evidenced by my signature set forth below, I, _____, hereby accept the nomination to run for a seat as (insert position here) of AFE

I acknowledge and agree to the following:

1. I understand nominations are being sought widely and that acceptance of this nomination is not a guarantee of election, nor of singular candidacy
2. All positions are subject to the customary obligations imposed on a regional officer or director of a corporation, including the following obligations (and will be required to execute documentation evidencing the same): (i) confidentiality restrictions; (ii) conflicts of interest limitations; (iii) prohibition against self dealing and insider trading; (iv) fiduciary duties imposed by law on directors of corporations; (v) certain time and travel commitments; and (vi) any other obligations set forth in the AFE's policies pertaining to the elected regional officers and directors of the Association.
3. I have read the job description, and understand the goals and objectives of the position, and agree to carry those out to the best of my ability.
4. Satisfactory performance is a criterion for maintenance of the position. If I am unable to carry out the required tasks and meet the Goals and objectives I will accept being replaced for non-performance.
5. I have read the campaigning policy, and will comply with this and any other policy related to fair and honest campaigning for the position.
6. The Regional officers and directors are not currently entitled to any compensation, other than reimbursement for reasonable travel expenses requested or required by AFE.
7. The AFE will disclose the information with respect to me provided in the Nomination Ballot with which this Nomination Acceptance Form is attached.
